ON THE ROAD:
THE ORIGINAL
SCROLL.

BY JACK KEROUAC

First met Neal not long after my father died. I had serious illness that I won't bother to talk about except to say that you could call my life on the road. Prior to that I'd been seeing the country, always vaguely planning and never off and so on. Neal is the perfect guy for the road because

...got drunk and black-blinded somewhat, slept on the other morning, while we sat around dumbly smoking butts from each of a gloomy day Neal got up nervously, paced around thinking to do was Louanne's breakfast and sweeping the table was all I knew of Neal at the outset. During the 4000 confided in Hal Chase that he absolutely had to learn Neal said I was a writer and he should come to me for advice. In a parking lot, had a fight with Louanne in the
